Banzai Burger Grand Opening

Posted By Mary Nagle on July 1st, 2011

Nothing beats a burger and cocktails after a hard day on the beach.

This Saturday, esteemed restaurateur Alex Duff and hospitality publicist Steve Kasuba will open a chic après beach bar on the Napeague stretch between Amagansett and Montauk. This summer-inspired hotspot is an ode to the beach and the Hamptons way of life.

This weekend, the restaurant will host the Banzai Burger Grand Opening Party from 2-6:00 p.m. on Saturday. The menu will feature burgers, sushi, salads, and all sorts of delicious drinks to satisfy a happy hour craving.

For those who are serious about their sun time, do not fret. Banzai Burger is open from noon to midnight seven days a week, so you can get great food and unwind even after the sun has set. And if you're more of a morning person, their Sunday brunch is sure to impress.
