If you're a seasoned foodie and plan on being in the Hamptons this summer (in other words, if you live in New York), you really won't want to miss the second annual Taste of Two Forks food and wine festival, sponsored by Dan's Papers, on July 14.

This year's event, hosted by Jean-Georges Vongerichten and designer Nicole Miller, will celebrate the best eats on both the North and South Forks. Head chefs from each participating restaurant will serve favorites from their menus, and local wineries will supply the beverages.

To get a jump on the scene, we talked to Vongerichten about some of his personal favorite places to eat in the Hamptons—all of which, naturally, will join the host at the festival.
